INTRODUCTION

I am an established costume designer and Founder/Creative Director at Lolo Creative. My career began in the UK and European film industries and now encompasses full costume design for world famous theme parks and exhibitions in the UK, USA and Asia.

My experience working on the Harry Potter movie franchise guided me to become Creative Director for Costume at the renowned 'Making of Harry Potter Tour'.

I was heavily involved in developing it from its inception, and continue to lead on new installations and displays.

Working with Universal Studios; my company expanded and grew to be a preferred creative studio for the parks in Orlando, Hollywood, Osaka and the new venture in Beijing as lead designer for the entire park's operational wardrobe. Myself and my team are currently working on the Entertainment, Animatronic costume, and operational wardrobe for the new Universal park in Orlando:
Epic Universe.

Fully fluent in English and a good level in Spanish, with a full clean UK Driving Licence and O-1 US Visa.
